

This is my community
...because I fight for all our rights.

This is my community

...but it doesn't always feel that way because of myths and stereotypes about bisexual people and others who are attracted to more than one sex or gender. This is called biphobia—and like homophobia, it hurts everyone in our community. We've been here from the start, fighting for all our rights. Some of us are assumed to be gay, lesbian, or straight because of who we are dating or what we look like. Some of us are bi and trans, but not always recognized as both.

We are proud to be bisexual and proud to be part of the LGBTQ community. Let's work together to challenge biphobic myths and stereotypes, increase bisexual visibility, and celebrate the contributions that bisexuals make to our communities.

Visit bisexualhealth.com
for more information.

A pregnant woman with curly brown hair is shown from the chest up, wearing a white t-shirt. The letters 'G B T' are printed in large, bold, black font across the front of her shirt. The 'G' and 'T' are partially obscured by large, bold, orange letters 'G B T' that are overlaid on the image. The woman is looking slightly to the right of the camera with a neutral expression. She is wearing a gold bracelet on her left wrist.

G B T

This is my community
...because I'm bi even if you think I look straight.

This is my community

...but it doesn't always feel that way because of myths and stereotypes about bisexual people and others who are attracted to more than one sex or gender. This is called biphobia—and like homophobia, it hurts everyone in our community. We've been here from the start, fighting for all our rights. Some of us are assumed to be gay, lesbian, or straight because of who we are dating or what we look like. Some of us are bi and trans, but not always recognized as both.

We are proud to be bisexual and proud to be part of the LGBTQ community. Let's work together to challenge biphobic myths and stereotypes, increase bisexual visibility, and celebrate the contributions that bisexuals make to our communities.

Visit bisexualhealth.com
for more information.

GET IT?

This is my community
...because homophobia hurts me too.

This is my community

...but it doesn't always feel that way because of myths and stereotypes about bisexual people and others who are attracted to more than one sex or gender. This is called biphobia—and like homophobia, it hurts everyone in our community. We've been here from the start, fighting for all our rights. Some of us are assumed to be gay, lesbian, or straight because of who we are dating or what we look like. Some of us are bi and trans, but not always recognized as both.

We are proud to be bisexual and proud to be part of the LGBTQ community. Let's work together to challenge biphobic myths and stereotypes, increase bisexual visibility, and celebrate the contributions that bisexuals make to our communities.

Visit bisexualhealth.com
for more information.

BI

This is my community
...because I'm bi and trans.

This is my community

...but it doesn't always feel that way because of myths and stereotypes about bisexual people and others who are attracted to more than one sex or gender. This is called biphobia—and like homophobia, it hurts everyone in our community. We've been here from the start, fighting for all our rights. Some of us are assumed to be gay, lesbian, or straight because of who we are dating or what we look like. Some of us are bi and trans, but not always recognized as both.

We are proud to be bisexual and proud to be part of the LGBTQ community. Let's work together to challenge biphobic myths and stereotypes, increase bisexual visibility, and celebrate the contributions that bisexuals make to our communities.

Visit bisexualhealth.com
for more information.

